Cities Not to Miss!

CAIRO

The victorious city, known as the city of a thousand minarets as it was called hundreds of years ago. Cairo is the heart of Egypt; the capital of the country where over 23 million of the population live. Here is where most of the travelers start and end their trips to Egypt. Cairo is a city of contrasts where the new meets the old and the modern meets the ancient. They all blend together to create a sense of wonder and amazement. Here the traveler will enjoy the Great Pyramids of Giza, cultural walks, museums, various nightlife options and gourmet cuisine.

ALEXANDRIA

Alexandria is the second capital of Egypt. This port city was established around 2300 years ago, when Alexander the Great conquered Egypt. The city was built to become the heart of knowledge in the ancient world. Here, travelers walk in the footsteps of philosophers, intellectuals, and knowledge seekers. On that specific sea shore Cleopatra and Mark Anthony fell in love and their everlasting story was started, only to be told over and over again in near and distant lands. Here travelers would enjoy the great mix of Greco-Roman and Egyptian architecture, Catacombs, libraries and coliseums.

LUXOR

ASWAN

The ancient city of Thebes, known as the city of a hundred gates. A city that survived over 3900 years to bring us to today. Home of one third of the UNESCO "Heritage List." This city is an open air museum, where travelers get dazzled by the glory of the past. The colors in the Valley of the Kings, the huge columns of the Temple of Karnak, the humongous Colossi, the spectacular view of the Nile and much more. This is a must see city in Egypt that no one should miss.

The southernmost city of Egypt. Home of the Nubian people. This is where Agatha Christie was inspired by the beauty of the Nile and wrote her famous novel "Death on The Nile". This was the home of Isis; the goddess of love and passion in ancient Egypt, that has attracted travelers throughout many periods of time. Aswan has also been the commercial gateway since antiquity. It contains significant archaeological sites like the Philae temple complex, on Agilkia Island near the landmark Aswan dam.

ABU SIMBEL

The whole city is here because of one site. It is the home of two massive rock temples dedicated to Pharaoh Ramses II and his wife Nefertari. Here travelers get dazzled by the gigantic statues of the pharaoh standing for over 3200 years, flanking the entrance to one of the most impressive temples in Egypt.

SHARM EL SHEIKH

Egypt is more than history and culture. This is one of the most spectacular beach resort locations of Egypt, located in the Sinai Peninsula and includes the Red Sea.
